

Web Summit Lisbon 2025

Five Days | November 10–14, 2025
Stay at the 5 InterContinental Lisbon

With full access to Web Summit Lisbon, the world's most dynamic technology and startup event, you'll connect with innovators, creators, and thought leaders from across the globe all in the heart of a city bursting with culture and energy.

Wanderlux has designed every detail of this journey so you can focus on what matters most learning, exploring, and being inspired in one unforgettable experience.

Day 1

Arrival and Opening Night

Welcome to Lisbon. After checking in, take time to relax before joining your guide for a gentle walk through the elegant Baixa district.

Stroll across Praça do Comércio and Rossio Square and get your first taste of the city's charm.

As the sun sets, step into the Web Summit opening ceremony at MEO Arena a gathering that sets the tone for an inspiring week intercommunication Lisbon, a five-star retreat overlooking the city.

Day 2

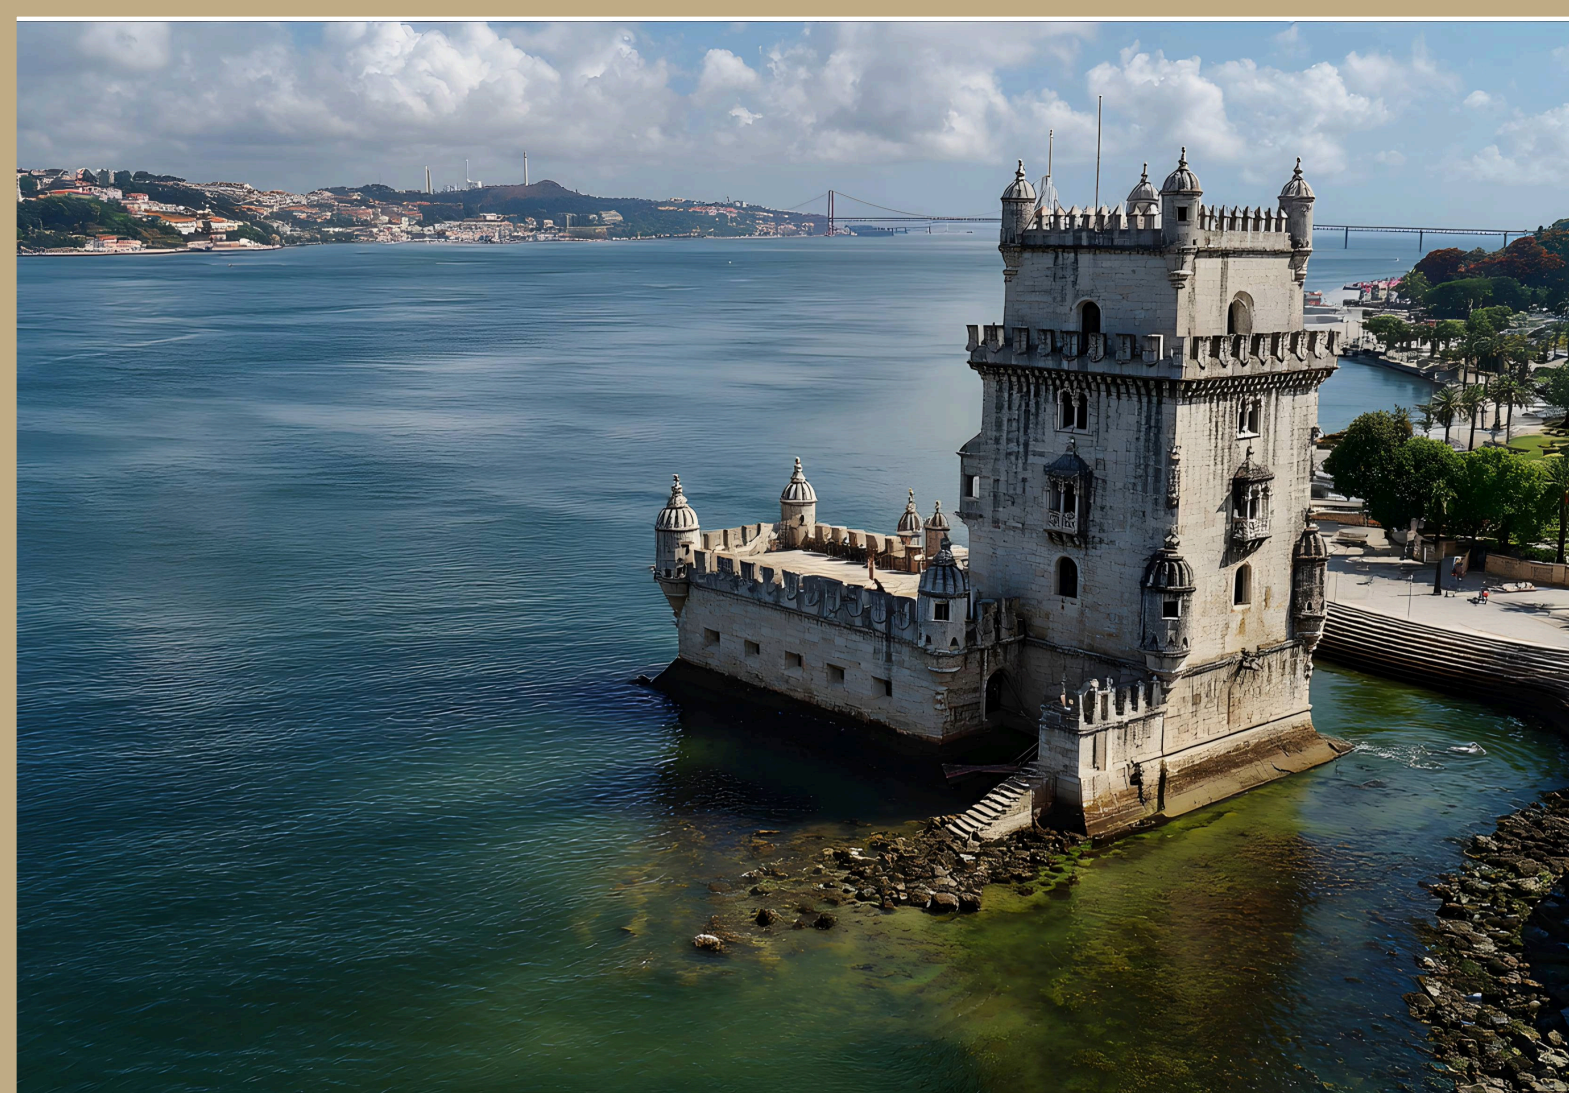

Web Summit and Tram 28

Begin your day surrounded by innovators at Web Summit, where global voices share ideas that spark change.

Later, board the iconic Tram 28 for a scenic journey through Lisbon's hills, from Graça to Estrela.

Visit St George's Castle for panoramic views, stop by the city's cathedral, and end your evening over dinner and live Fado music — a soulful celebration of Portugal's culture.

Day 3

Belém and the Tagus

Start with a morning of Web Summit sessions, then head west to Belém, a neighbourhood rich in maritime history.

Explore the Belém Tower and Jerónimos Monastery, both recognised by UNESCO for their cultural significance.

Savour the original Pastéis de Belém, warm from the oven, before dinner by the river where the city's lights shimmer across the Tagus.

Day 4

Ideas and Lisbon Nights

Spend the morning diving deeper into Web Summit's conversations. In the afternoon, take time for yourself. Explore the modern waterfront, enjoy a bit of shopping or a quiet drink at the Vasco da Gama Mall. That evening, share a seafood dinner at Doca Peixe, then discover the energy of Bairro Alto Lisbon's lively night district filled with music, laughter and life.

Day 5

Alfama and Farewell

On your final day, wander through Alfama, Lisbon's oldest quarter. Its narrow streets, tiled façades and small cafés tell the story of a city that blends tradition and creativity.

Enjoy a relaxed lunch before your private transfer to the airport, carrying with you new ideas, new connections and a genuine sense of place.

Why Join

This experience is designed for curious minds people who value innovation as much as authentic connection.

You'll meet global thinkers at Web Summit, uncover Lisbon's culture with expert guides, and enjoy the warmth of Portuguese hospitality from start to finish.
